TERMS OF REFERENCE
Procurement of Consulting Services for the Development of PCC Style Guide for Written Communication

I. BACKGROUND AND RATIONALE

As an independent quasi-judicial body tasked with enforcing the Philippine Competition Act, among the main tasks of the Philippine Competition Commission (PCC) is the conduct of communication and advocacy activities to inform the general public about the provisions of the Act and developments in competition policy implementation.

In support of these advocacy activities, the PCC produces various information, education, and communication materials (e.g., guides, handbooks, primers, policy papers), which are disseminated through various platforms. Currently, there is no standard style being followed in developing these written materials, as well as other PCC documents.

To ensure the consistency of PCC's written communication and quality of documents, there is a need to develop a comprehensive style guide in producing both technical outputs (e.g., policy papers) and administrative documents (e.g., memos, external letters).
